

Radio Merseyside - Late Night Live with Linda McDermott Nic Corke's Liverpool Arts and Culture Spot Monday 28th June 2010

Liverpool Academy of Arts

Soft Folds - Hard Edges

Monday 28th June - Friday 9th July 2010

Geoff has reinvented the role of the canvas and when you see his works you see a fusion between contemporary fashion design and painting. Constructed from a series of soft folds the overall design is given form by hard edges with different materials which, when brought together create something new.

www.la-art.co.uk Tel: 0151 709 0735

32 Seel Street, Liverpool, L1 4BE

Corke Gallery

HATE & LOVE BY Charlie Fraiss

Monday 28th June – Wednesday 14th July 2010

Monday 28th June – Wednesday 14th July 2010

22 cubist paintings are included in the show which features works inspired by Liverpool scenes and the Anglican Cathedral, beautiful seaside landscapes from Cornwall and more serious political subjects highlighting issues around immigration, anti-Semitism and asylum seekers.

296-298 Aigburth Rd, Liverpool, L17 9PW

Tel: 07773 287827 www.corke.net

dot-art

Frank Linnett 'Synthesis of Recollection'

21 June - 30 July 2010 12-6pm Monday to Friday
Frank Linnett is a well established Liverpool based artist, who has been exhibiting regionally and nationally for over 25 years. This series of new oil paintings, entitled Synthesis of Recollection and shown for the first time at dot-art, continues to explore the artist's ongoing interest in combining real and imagined worlds and experiences.

The series of ten paintings are based on things experienced, bringing together elements of the natural landscape and man-made structures that have been recalled and reconfigured through a synthesis of observation and imagination. 16 Queen Avenue, Castle Street, Liverpool, L2 4TX. www.dot-art.com

Liverpool Philharmonic Hall

Films at the Phil - Letter From An Unknown Woman

Tuesday 29 June 2010 7:30 pm

Released in 1948 (88mins) starring: Joan Fontaine, Louis Jourdan, Mady Christians, Marcel Journet
Tickets £5.50, £6.50 (boxes)

This lush tearjerker par excellence has attained well-deserved status as one of the greatest films of its kind. A tale of romantic yearning and pining for love between a young girl and a self-absorbed, frivolous dilettante concert pianist. Both experience numerous missed opportunities over a twenty year span - and ultimately fail to achieve true romance.

National Conservation Centre

Stephen King in conversation

Wednesday 30 June 2010 Free

As part of the Lewis's fifth floor: a department store exhibition the Photographer Stephen King is in conversation with Malcolm Dickson from Street Level Photoworks, Glasgow about the Lewis's project and the social influences on Stephen's style.

Places are limited, please call 0151 478 4999 to book.
www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk Whitechapel, L1 6HZ

For full details about these events and lots more in Merseyside visit Nic's website at www.LiverpoolArtsandCulture.com

Radio Merseyside - Late Night Live with Linda McDermott

Nic Corke's Liverpool Arts and Culture Spot

Monday 28th June 2010

The Brindley

Joe Longthorne

The first ever visit to The Brindley for the ever popular Hull born singer.

Tickets £21

Tel: 0151 907 8360

High Street, Runcorn, Cheshire, WA7 1BG

Ness Botanical Gardens

Off the Ground Youth Theatre

Thursday 1st - Saturday 3rd July 2010

(Adult £7/Conc £4

Off the Ground Youth Theatre to perform "The Birds" by Aristophanes within the grounds of Ness Gardens.

Tel: 0151 353 0123 www.liv.ac.uk/nessgardens

www.offtheground.co.uk

Ness, Neston, South Wirral, CH64 4AY

Formby Point, Formby

A Midsummer's Night Dream

Saturday 3rd July 2010, 1.30pm

Oddssocks return to Formby Point with another high-energy, feel-good, family theatre show and this summer it's the magical, spectacular A Midsummer Night's Dream, performed on their Elizabethan pageant wagon with live music, exhilarating circus skills and some outrageous hunting dogs!

Four lovers run-off to the countryside where mysterious woodland creatures play tricks on them with hilarious results and when a troupe of amateur actors decide to rehearse in the woods the fairies intervention leads to bizarre and outrageous comedy that's perfect for the open-air.

A Midsummer's Night Dream is just one part of the Picnic @ The Point event, which starts at 11am and runs until 4pm. Go along with your family and have a look round at the stalls, join in on a ranger tour, arts workshops and lots more!

Tickets: £5.50 (all tickets) / £3.50 Parking Booking

Fees: No online booking fee applies / Telephone

Booking Fee: £2 per transaction Southport Arts Centre Box Office - 01704 540011

Wirral Country Park

Barn Owls at Night

3 July 2010 - 8:30pm-11:30pm Free - booking essential

Join the Rangers at Wirral Country Park for a short talk and slide show about Barn Owls. They will then take you on a walk looking for Barn Owls hunting.

This event is suitable for all the family but children under 16 years must be accompanied by a parent.

Sorry no dogs. Wear suitable clothes and bring your binoculars!. Meet at the Thurstaston Visitor Centre.

Booking essential.

Wirral Country Park, Station Road, Thurstaston, Wirral, CH41 4HY Tel: 0151 648 4371 www.wirral.gov.uk

Liverpool Philharmonic Hall

Battle of Britain

Sunday 4 July 2010 7:30 pm (£11 - £35)

Carl Davis CBE (Hons) conductor, Claire Sweeney vocalist & Jean Boht narrator

The Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra perform a stirring programme of wartime classics, including 'Lili Marlene', 'Goodnight Children Everywhere', 'The White Cliffs of Dover', 'We'll Meet Again', and wartime film favourites.

Claire Sweeney, former "Forces Sweetheart", who recently recorded these works with Carl Davis, stars. Audiences are welcome to sing along!

For full details about these events and lots more in Merseyside visit Nic's website at www.LiverpoolArtsandCulture.com